Missionary Visitor: Catholic Diocese of Auchi, Nigeria was erected in November 2002 with Bishop Gabriel Dunia as its first Shepard. Being a brand new diocese situated in a predominantly rural area of Edo State and headquartered in Auchi, a Muslim town. The diocese has had to contend with a lot of challenging factors of growth and development. From building the bishops house, the Cathedral Church, a pastoral center etc. The growth has rather being slow. Sharing my mission story with you today, will be about the following areas of our people's experience and life. These will include but not limited to: Healthcare, Education, Training of priests. The need to share our mission story with you allows us to bring the Church in this mission territories to your attention. So whatever you are able to contribute to the life and growth of the church is truly given to Christ in need. For it will assist the struggling diocese fulfill some people friendly programs within its territory, and train more priests for the mission of the whole Church.
